Glendale Civic Center Decorating Policies & Guidelines

We would like to make your event decorating an easy and stress free experience. Keep in mind that the Glendale Civic Center Ballrooms have the classic beauty of top-rated resorts. Our grand neo-classical entrance with its beautiful limestone columns, imported marble floors and domed ceiling sets the tone for an elegant affair.

Decorating Times - Access to the room/ space can be done only during pre-arranged hours, as there are often events scheduled before your event.

Special Effects Requirements – Cold Spark Machines and Confetti blasts must be approved by your Civic Center Event coordinator. Water based fog or theatrical smoke machines, flames, pyrotechnics are not allowed unless the following is provided; a special permit is required from the Fire Marshal due to their possible effect on the fire sprinkler and alarm system. To provide that type of entertainment the fire alarm system will require the smoke detectors being de-activated, by a reputable fire alarm company at your expense, additionally a fire inspector watch will be required at an hourly fee. Please inform your event coordinator on the use of any special effects and for current rates for permits, de-activation and inspectors.

Balloons- Helium tanks cannot be stored at the Civic Center. Tanks may be used and removed. All balloons must be deflated at the conclusion of the event by the group.

Centerpieces – You may provide your own centerpieces. They should be pre- arranged before your arrival, so that they may be easily set in the center of each table.

Restricted Décor Accessories - No candles allowed unless battery operated. Glitter, confetti, or Mylar tinsel is not permitted at the Glendale Civic Center. Additional cleaning fees will applied if used. Any items adhered to the wall must be done so only with the use of masking tape. Please inform your event coordinator of any details related to decorations.

Vendors – All Vendors must tear down the evening of your event as events may be taking place the next morning. Special arrangements may be possible. Please discuss with your Event Coordinator.
